It was still about four days until the big rain was scheduled to start and things were rather dull hanging around waiting for the forty day trip. So old Noah decides to show the animals and their wives a good time.

It takes most of the forenoon to get them all seated comfortably in the bus and then they are off. In their haste Noah forget all about the skunk family and leaves them behind. They jump in their flivver and catch up to the bus. They they climb right in amongst the gang. Somehow this upsets the whole affair and the outing is off.

All the rest of the animals leave the bus and Noah becomes so upset that he drives right off of a cliff into the river. He swims ashore and runs up a tree to hide but the skunks follow him right along and decide to play around in his whiskers. Noah says: "when your Neighbor Keeps Pigs In The Cellar You Are Sure To Get Wind Of It".
